AGENCY IMPACT - INITIAL THOUGHTS

- -- There is no doubt that there is an intent to include CIA and other Intelligence Community entities under Sunset:
 - -- definition of "agency" (page 3)
 includes CIA;
 - -- intelligence exemption under "program" definition limited to Title VI:
 - -- only CIARDS specifically referred to as being exempt from Sunset concept.
- -- Sunset appears to represent a degree of micromanagement unacceptable from an intelligence viewpoint;
- -- Relief should be sought by excluding CIA from definition of Agency and by including a definition of "program" applicable to the Act as a whole which would exclude intelligence activities across the board.
